CHRISTOPHER TERRY

If you can keep your head when all about you Are losing theirs and blaming it on you,

If you can trust yourself when all men But make allowance for doubt you, their doubting too;

If you can dream and not make dreams vour master:

If you can think and not make thoughts your aim;

If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster And treat those two impostors just the same;

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue, Or walk with Kings nor lose the common touch,

If you can fill the unforgiving minute With sixty seconds worth of distance run,

Yours is the Earth and everything thats

And which is more you'll be a Man, my son! Kipling

I hope you still feel small when you stand beside the ocean

Whenever one door closes I hope one more opens

Promise me that you'll give faith a fighting chance

And when you get the chance to sit it out or dance

I hope you dance

I hope you dance

~ Lee Ann Womack

Mom
